Amount of loan granted by nationalised banks in Andhra Pradesh to agricultural sector

939. SHRI PRABHAKAR RAO KALVALA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the total amount of loan granted by the nationalised banks in Andhra Pradesh to agricultural sector during 1988-89;

(b) whether the loans granted by the nationalised banks in Andhra Pradesh for agricultural operations are on the same scale as in other States;

(c) whether the banks are giving loans to all the farmers without any distinction;

(d) if not, the reasons therefor;

(e) whether any targets have been fixed for giving loans to the farmers in Andhra Pradesh during 1989-90; and

(f) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) As per the data received from Reserve Bank of India (RBI), the outstanding advances of Public Sector Banks to Agriculture in Andhra Pradesh as at the end of June, 1987 (latest available) were Rs. 183.2 crores.

(b) to (d) Extension of credit in a particular State or to a particular category of borrowers depends upon number of factors i.e. level of economic activity and credit absorption capacity etc. Banks have to adhere to guidelines/instructions issued by RBI from time to time regarding lending to borrowers including farmers without any discrimination.

(e) and (f) There are no specific targets for lending in a particular State. However, to enchance flow of credit to farmers, commercial banks have been asked to improve the share of direct finance to Agriculture in total outstanding advances to 18 per cent by the end of March, 1989.
